Great songs but format issues with digital addition.

By Sarah E. Mcdonald

While to songs are great. In the digital edition the text only takes up about 1/3 of the available page/screen size. This means that each page default to a text size that is too small to easily read. Buy the real book. Don't waste your money on the digital version. See picture of problem. I used the same page that amazon uses for an example. If I displayed like they show it does this would be a five star purchase.

Great book for novice bluegrass pickers!

By N.E. Reader

Terrific selection of songs. I'm a new banjo player and I really appreciate the author's handy guide to banjo chords. I may just get the 2 CDs that come with it! Like the other people in my bluegrass jam group, I went to Staples and had them put it into spiral-bound format. Much easier to use that way. (Didn't cost that much to do.)

Pretty Good

By Garry Phillips

Perfect for the melody line so you can figure out your part such as a banjo part. It has the words of the song and the chords. If you can read music then you can read the melody. If not, but know the song, just play the chords and sing.
