Dominic Moretti, software mogul, had not been in a relationship since the love of his life, left him two years ago. His best friend convinced him to accompany the very beautiful and sexy Victoria Hart on vacation as an escort. Realizing that he really needs a vacation and spending two weeks with a beautiful woman, filled with sex, passion and no commitment, is just what the doctor ordered. Dominic agrees, on one condition, she can't know his true identity.

Victoria Hart, CEO of Bouvier and Hart Consulting Firm, was still mourning the death of her mother who died suddenly from a brain aneurysm. On the advice of her best friends, she decides to treat herself to a two-week vacation, on a tropical island with a very handsome paid escort, for her birthday. Unbeknownst to her, Dominic is not an escort, but actually the founder and CEO of a major software corporation. The two-week vacation was filled with commitment free, fun in the sun.

Upon returning from their vacation, they went their separate ways, relaxed and rejuvenated. Although they continued to think about each other, neither acted on it, as they went about to their separate lives. Dominic's one time love resurfaced and Victoria is given news that will change her life forever. Neither was prepared for what was in store for them as a result of the choices they made.

It was Ok

By Kindle Customer

This was an OK read. I can't say I loved the story, It had all the right elements; the plot was there, just the story itself left a lot to be desired for me. Dominic was kind of an A-hole. The way he treated Anna was just wrong. He would just leave her, talk down to her and put her out and run to Victoria at the drop of a hat all while claiming he wanted to be with her? that was so messed up. Victoria was no better, always crying and saying how she didn't want to interfere with his relationship but that is just what she did. For example she did not always have to be a round his family. She could have said no, not going to dinner with your family, take your girlfriend. I just didn't understand why they just couldn't say they loved each other or that they wanted to be together. If they had, a lot of things could have been avoided. It took the whole book for them to finally say how they felt about each other. The one thing I did love was the secondary characters. Dominic family was so funny, I would laugh out loud! I wanted to love this book, I have read book similar in story line but this one, I can't say I loved.

Good Book

By Eve

This was a really good book and I would have given 5 stars but, it had a lot, a lot of typos and it took away from the reading. It had a good plot, good story, great characters but, the typos. I had to reread a lot to get the meaning from misplaced words or the wrong spelling of words. Could have been a great read.

Great Story - I loved it!

By Mspraise1

This author is not new to me and although I have her Defined and Delusional Love 2 book series, I have yet to read them. So I decided I would read this book now.

The story is about Dominic and Victoria and their journey to love. Their story was complicated and messy in places but the way the author navigates you through all the twists, turns and sets backs in the relationship was exquisite!

Reading this story for me was like eating one of my favourite meals or drinking some very smooth coffee with cream that gives you that wonderful feeling of enjoyment when you have a great meal. I thought the story flowed and it had me totally engrossed. I could not stop reading until I had finished the book.

The story has humour, betrayal, deception, friendship, love, murder, hatred. There are barriers and hurdles presented to the couple that they have to work through in order to achieve their happy ending.

What I appreciated about the story the most was that even with all the drama, confusion, complexities of what was going in their relationship, Dominic even when he was angry with Victoria, was always loving, thoughtful, protective of Victoria. He would not have anyone say a bad word about Victoria not even family members. Even with all their issues they remained caring about each other. I loved that so much about how the author told this story, to me that is true love.

The only villain in the story for me was Anna! Lord I wanted to give her the beat down of her life. However, she gets hers!

There were a couple of editing issues but this did not prevent me from thoroughly enjoying the story!

This to me, was a beautiful, tender love story which I enjoyed reading every single word of! I had that satisfied feeling after reading this love story. Loved it!

I cannot wait for Monica and Marco's story. I would highly recommend this story.
