There has never been a time in history when a book like this was more needed. Dr. Rice not only tells families how they can have a Christian home, he inspires them to want to have one. The book contains a long chapter on abortion. It is the best treatise on this wholesale, legalized, murder of the unborn you will find anywhere. A concluding section is "Family Tributes to Dad" from Mrs. Rice and each of his six lovely daughters. If the "proof of the pudding is in the eating," that section will certainly prove the validity of everything Dr. Rice has written in the preceding eight chapters! This is the sequel to Dr. Rice's first and greatly used book on the home entitled, "The Home--Courtship, Marriage and Children."
