To unbelievable ! Book is saturated with countless old golf stories and addages . A 6 handicapper has very little chance winning his state , needless to say a national mid-am ! Would have been satisfied if JW just made the cut after tearing up his score card . Title of book is miss leading also. Disappointed

Good yarn about America's most hallowed golf course and amateur.

Intriguing story, very walter mitty-like, in which a relative unknown qualifies to play in the masters golf tournament. Something only a golfer could dream up, right? With the help of a friend, who comes in from Japan, it makes for an interesting story. I had fun reading it and I recommend this book.

Good read!

If you like golf related fiction you'll love this book. Great characters and dialogue. The main storyline is fantastic and one most golfers would like to see in reality. Would greatly benefit from a strong final edit.
