About the Author

Stephen Z. Smith retired from the Montgomery Police Department in Montgomery, Alabama in 2001 after 20 years of service. He started his career at nineteen years old as a police cadet working for a year and half before attending the Montgomery Police Academy. He turned twenty-one years old while in the academy and after graduation was assigned to third shift patrol. Throughout his career he has worked in traffic, crime scene investigation and on a high profile zero tolerance drug unit before retiring from 2nd shift patrol as a senior training officer. He retired at 39 years old and is currently employed with the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office in Alabama as a Crime Scene Technician. He also teaches Crime Scene Investigation to other law enforcement agencies. While with the police department, he organized the local Cops for Christ group in 1992 which led to the creation of the River Region Chaplain Service. This ministry provides chaplains to assist law enforcement officers and fire fighters with pastoral care and emotional support due to job related stress. He is certified through the International Conference of Police Chaplains (I.C.P.C) as a police chaplain and chaplain liaison.

It's More than Shootouts and Car Chases takes you inside the life of a Montgomery Police Officer in the capital city of Alabama. Corporal Smith began his career as a nineteen year old police cadet working in an administrative capacity, until attending the police academy in 1983. As a trainee, Smith started the police academy with twenty fellow recruits and sixteen grueling weeks later, graduating with only six. You experience from the beginning what it takes to become a Montgomery police officer. This detailed, factual account provides the reader with an inside look from being shot at as a rookie officer while investigating a car burglary, to being involved in two police shootings and working the deaths of two fellow officers as an evidence technician. Throughout his twenty year career, Corporal Steve Smith shares his experiences that will have you laughing one moment and then a call of "shots fired" will show you the true dangers of being a police officer. As Corporal Steve Smith shares his true life experiences he also shares his faith in the Lord as he serves and protects the citizens of Montgomery.

EXCELLENT BOOK!

By Becky Payne

This book is well written and reveals very interesting aspects of police work. I am a civilian with the MPD and know a lot of the people mentioned in the book. Mr. Smith's account of life on the streets opened my eyes to the types of people and situations police officers come across on a daily basis. To me, it is more interesting because of the fact that I know or am familiar with a lot of the names that weren't changed. But even someone who doesn't know the people mentioned would enjoy the short stories and reflections. A highly recommended read!

Lisa Rose

By L. Rose

This is a great insight to the daily life of a police officer. You don't realize all that they have to do. Mixed with humor and real life action, this book is a must have! If you live in the Montgomery area, you will find it interesting to see how things have changed etc. It is a good read.

Inspiring and compelling

By Heather

The stories in this book give such an inspiring insight into police work that we don't normally see. The author takes us with him from the earliest days of his career through some of his funniest, scariest, and most surprising experiences, and I felt as if I were right there with him. I was able to laugh, gasp, cringe, and occasionally wipe away a tear with each episode, and my view of police officers and how they do their job has changed completely. The stories were well-written, descriptive, and compelling, and the theme of the author's faith in God allowed me to see every adventure through the eyes of a young man keeping his faith as it is tested each day. I would recommend this book to anyone interested in police work or who needs a fresh perspective on how men and women in uniform deal with the very real drama they must encounter when they answer a call for help.
