a reform commentary

By ts

I think this is a good purchase for someone interested in a reform commentary on Mishlei. The translation has been arranged to reflect pluralistic and egalitarian ideas. However, if someone is looking for a more traditional translation and approach, this would not be the correct book for you.

Good book

I bought this book to help me lead a small group bible study on Proverbs. It was very helpful and gave me an insight into the Jewish thought processes. I recommend it as an excellent resource book.

Proverbs/Mishlei Kravitz & Olitzky

By Donald J. Weinshank

See my review on the authors' Ecclesiastes / Kohelet. I am currently studying this volume side-by-side with the old Gunther Plaut version.

Each is a first rate book, but I would give the edge here to the Kravitz, Olitzky volume because so much first rare biblical scholarship has appeared in the intervening decades. Their prose is limpidly clear and informative.
